

From the White Lion to Selling Railway Station

Information – Please note the public footpaths should remain as published here and are generally marked by wooden posts with small yellow circular markers or signposts. Please take care of passing traffic when walking on roads as well as on all footpaths for trip and slip hazards. Please be aware that the landscape is farmed and is subject to change from time to time. Please also be mindful of the Countryside Code, leaving gates as you find them, taking your litter home and being considerate to the local community and respecting others enjoying the countryside. There are 0 stiles on this route.

Trains travel to London, stopping at Faversham or to Dover stopping at Canterbury

1 From the front of the pub, turn left and walk approximately 200 meters along the Selling Road passing properties until you reach a footpath marker signpost on your left directing you to 'Selling Station & Neames Forstal $\frac{3}{4}$ mile' beside a footpath gate and a wide gate with sign 'Please keep clear this access clear at all times'.

2 Pass through the footpath gate and keep to the left hand side of the field passing beneath an avenue of mature beech trees.

3 At the far corner of the field head for the footpath gate in the left corner. Pass through the gate, turn right and follow the enclosed footpath all the way down to the road, TAKING CARE cross the road and turn left, as you pass Sondes of Selling tea room, you will see the signpost for the station, turn right here into Station Approach.

